Summer Day Camp

Top 10 Frequently asked Questions:

- Where do I register for Summer Camp? What do I need to register for Summer Camp?
  - All SUMMER CAMP REGISTRATION MUST BE DONE IN PERSON. WE DO NOT ACCEPT PAYMENTS OVER THE PHONE.
  - REGISTRATION PACKETS ARE PROVIDED BY THE SHEHAN CENTER THAT CONTAINS ALL OF THE DOCUMENTS YOU NEED TO COMPLETE.
  - That year’s Federal Income Tax Return (No W2’s)
  - Updated Immunization & Health Exam Record from Physicians
  - Completed Summer Day Camp Registration Form
  - Current Authorization for the Administration of Medication Form, completed by Physician. All medications are due the first day of camp, labeled “Camp” in original packaging with prescription, child’s name, and directions for use.
  - Or Medical Liability Release Form if you do not wish to provide medication.
  - Payment: NO REGISTRATION will be complete without full payment.
  - All cash, credit or check payments must be made in full for each Session and Field Trip that you register for. Deposits/partial payments are not accepted.

- Do you offer scholarships?
  - If awarded grants, we would be able to offer a very limited amount of scholarships. Scholarships are awarded based on need. For more information regarding scholarships, please contact our co-program director, Katherine O’Hara.

- How do I apply for Care 4 Kids?
  - If you are a first time Care 4 Kids applicant you will need to visit www.care4kids.com and print out a parent provider agreement form.
  - Once this form is printed you may bring it to the Shehan center, where we will complete our section of the form.
  - Once the form is completed by both parties, it is the responsibility of the applicant to mail it in to Care 4 Kids.
Care 4 Kids will then send both the applicant and Shehan center a child care certificate. (The Shehan Center must receive the certificate in order for Care 4 Kids to become effective).

- The certificate will indicate when your coverage will begin/end, and how much of the program Care 4 Kids will be covering.
